

Neilpryde Baltic Cup 2012 Lithuania, Kintai

For the whole three days Curonian lagoon was decorated with colorful sails. 25-27th of May, „Neilpryde Baltic Cup Formula Windsurfing“ event was held by Extreme-sports.lt Lithuania.

„Neilpryde Baltic Cup" is a worldwide formula windsurf Baltic cup, consisting of three stages. Every year, on the last weekend of May, it's the most important windsurfing sport in Lithuania. Points, gathered there, are being approved and calculated into "Formula windsurfing" worldwide ratings.

Since the very first moment, the suspense was on. Here, in small Kintai town, as the strongest participants came here, including professionals.

In total, 47 participants from Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia and Russia took part in the cup.

First day the wind was too light, but the other two were super. Eight races were organized. Sadly, there were incidents - few racers broke the inventory and were rescued by the boat.

Lithuanian sportsman from Kaunas, Mantas Gresevičius was fifth in overall ranking, and that was the best result, achieved by Lithuanians. We are very proud to announce the youngsters (until 20 yrs) - Rytis Jasiūnas took the first place, and Paulius Voverys - third. This is very optimistic perspective for our sport in Lithuania.
